CLERK OF SUPREME COURT OF WISCONSIN

Nancy McGuire
107 Griffith Ct
Waukesha, WI 53188

It's important that our courts are beyond reproach and that judges aren't deciding cases involving their campaign contributors.

But that's not what the rules say in Wisconsin today. In fact, the conservative majority on our State Supreme Court adopted rules, literally written by the same special interests that spent big money to get them elected, that allow them to participate in cases even if the parties involved contributed to their campaigns.

The court rules ought to prevent even so much as the appearance of corruption that special interests get special treatment.

As the public becomes more informed on the current workings of our government, we will demand a fair and transparent government, free of corruption. Vote to change this law.
