Re: Petition 10-09

In regard to petition 10-09 Professional conduct for attorneys, the petitioner, Attorney John Nicholas Schweitzer indicated that he had contacted the State Bar of Wisconsin's Family Law Section and Attorney Dean Dietrich, chair of the State Bar's Professional Ethics Committee. The Family Law Section provides the attached comments to petition 10-09. The Ethics Committee considered Attorney Schweitzer's petition at its June 2013 meeting and have chosen not to provide comment.

Should you have any specific questions regarding this matter, please contact Public Affairs Director Lisa Roys at lroys@wisbar.org or 608.250.6128.

FAMILY LAW SECTION

Dear Board Members:

I am the Chair of the State Bar of Wisconsin Family Law Section. The Board had a meeting on May 4, 2013. At the meeting we reviewed Amended Petition 10-09 filed by Atty. John Nicholas Schweitzer seeking two changes to the existing Supreme Court Rules.

Please be advised that the Family Law Section opposes the requested changes submitted by Atty. Schweitzer. The Section opposes the requested changes as we believe they are unnecessary.

Thank you for considering the Section's position regarding the Amended Petition.

Best regards,

Atty. Anthony J. Menting
Family Law Section Chair
State Bar of Wisconsin
