CLERK OF SUPREME COURT OF WISCONSIN

There is not a question in my mind that any judge, including Supreme Court Justices need to recuse himself in the event either party in a case supported a campaign financially in any way. It doesn't matter if the money comes directly to the campaign or through a third party. Money is likely to pull a sheer curtain over good judgement. It's important that the public know their Justices are completely impartial. Money clouds judgement. Judges are human. I hope our clear thinking judges can see money in court cases for what it is-corruption.
