

FORM SUMMARY

Name of Form:	Stipulation to Change: Custody, Placement, Support, Maintenance, Arrears Payment, Balances
Form Number	FA-604A
Statutory Reference:	§§ 767.451, 767.461, 767.553, 767.59, 767.89, Wisconsin Statutes
Benchbook Reference:	FA 14
Purpose of Form:	For parties to stipulate (agree) to changes of an original family court judgment for child placement, custody, and support issues.
Who Completes It:	Parties who seek the change complete the form and present it to the child support agency and the court.
Distribution of Form:	Court, copies to each of the parties. The child support agency should also receive a copy of the order prior to filing for approval, if required.
Accompanying Forms:	Generally none.
New Form/Modification:	Modification; last update 03/26.
Modifications:	Added instructions in section about changes to legal custody directing a parent who is not granted sole legal custody to file a medical history form.
Comments:	This form is for use in divorce and paternity cases. The form allows the modification of child support, family support and maintenance orders as well as issues related to placement and other non-property matters. The only way for the parties to avoid a wage assignment is for the court to make a finding of irreparable harm to the payer or because the parties have an account transfer under § 767.267, Wis. Stats. If the parties are now or have in the past been the recipients of some form of public assistance (i.e., W2, food stamps, medical assistance, child care subsidy, etc.), the local child support agency must be notified before the court signs any order affecting a child support obligation to ensure that the interests of the public are protected. Child support must “sign off” on the agreement under those circumstances in the signature block provided for that agency prior to the court signing the order. The procedures for doing this would be county specific.
About this Form:	This form is the product of the Wisconsin Records Management Committee, a committee of the Director of State Court’s Office and a mandate of the Wisconsin Judicial Conference.
