

APPENDIX A

SCR 10.03 Membership.

(3)(b) Any inactive member in good standing may change his or her classification to that of an active member as follows:

1. An inactive member who has actively practiced law in this state within the last 10 years may be transferred to active membership by filing with the secretary a written request for transfer to the class of active members and paying the dues required of active members.
2. An inactive member who has not actively practiced law in this state during the last 10 years may be transferred to active membership by filing with the secretary a written request for transfer to the class of active members, paying the dues required of active members, and obtaining supreme court approval. The member shall serve on the board of bar examiners and the office of lawyer regulation a copy of the request for transfer to the class of active member. The member shall pay $200 each to the board of bar examiners and the office of lawyer regulation, which shall accompany the request. Within 90 days after service of the request, the board of bar examiners shall make a determination regarding compliance with continuing legal education requirements and file its finding with the supreme court. Within 90 days after service of the request, the director of the office of lawyer regulation shall investigate the eligibility of the requestor and file a response with the supreme court in support of or in opposition to the request. The supreme court shall then consider the request for transfer to active membership.

(3)(bf) Any judicial member who is no longer serving in a judicial office may change his or her classification to that of an active member by filing with the secretary a written request for transfer to the class of active members and paying the dues required of active members.

SCR 10.03 Membership.

(7) Voluntary resignation of membership.

(a) If a member of the state bar files with the executive director a written notice of the member's surrender of his or her license to practice law and the acceptance by the supreme court of his or her resignation in the state bar, the person shall then cease to be a member of the state bar and his or her name shall be removed from the membership register. Before accepting a resignation, the supreme court shall request from the office of lawyer regulation information concerning whether the attorney is the subject of any pending grievances, investigations, or proceedings.

(b) An attorney who has resigned as a member of the state bar may file a petition for readmission to the state bar with the supreme court. The attorney shall serve a copy of the petition on the board of bar examiners and the office of lawyer regulation. The attorney shall pay $200 each to the board of bar examiners and the office of lawyer regulation, which shall accompany the petition. Within 90 days after service of the petition for readmission, the board of bar examiners shall make a determination regarding the eligibility of the petitioner for readmission and file its finding with the supreme court. Within 90 days after service of the petition for readmission, the director of the office of lawyer regulation shall investigate the eligibility of the petitioner for readmission and file a response with the supreme court in support of or in opposition to the petition.
