You are hereby notified that the Court has entered the following opinion and order:

2025AP1319-CRNM State of Wisconsin v. Lisa Marie Hall (L.C. # 2019CM1370)

Summary disposition orders may not be cited in any court of this state as precedent or authority, except for the limited purposes specified in WIS. STAT. RULE 809.23(3).

Lisa Marie Hall appeals from a judgment convicting her of one count of endangering safety by intentionally pointing a firearm at a person. Appellate counsel, David Malkus, filed a no-merit report pursuant to Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967), and WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32. Hall received a copy of the report, was advised of her right to file a response, and has not responded. We have independently reviewed the record and the no-merit report as mandated by Anders. We conclude that there are no issues of arguable merit that could be pursued on appeal. We therefore summarily affirm. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

The State charged Hall with endangering safety by intentionally pointing a firearm at a person. The complaint alleged that while at a Burger King restaurant, Hall threw her food at the restaurant manager over an order dispute and then pointed a firearm at him. The matter proceeded to a bench trial where the trial court heard testimony from multiple witnesses and viewed police body camera footage of the incident. The court found Hall guilty and sentenced her to six months of imprisonment at the Community Reintegration Center. This no-merit report follows.

Appellate counsel's no-merit report addresses three issues: (1) whether the evidence presented at the bench trial was sufficient to support the conviction; (2) whether any errors warranting reversal occurred before or during trial; and (3) whether the trial court properly exercised its sentencing discretion.

Upon reviewing the record, we agree with appellate counsel's analysis and conclusion that there is no arguable merit to any of these issues. The no-merit report sets forth an adequate discussion of the potential issues to support the no-merit conclusion, and we need not address them further. Our independent review of the record discloses no other potential issue for appeal.

Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that the judgment is summarily affirmed. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Attorney David Malkus is relieved of further representation of Lisa Marie Hall in this matter. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32(3).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this summary disposition order will not be published.
