2024AP123

Stacie Gremminger v. Lori Gremminger (L.C. # 2022CV459)

Before Kloppenburg, P.J., Blanchard, and Nashold, JJ.

Summary disposition orders may not be cited in any court of this state as precedent or authority, except for the limited purposes specified in WIS. STAT. RULE 809.23(3).

Stacie Gremminger appeals a circuit court order denying her motion to reopen this case. Based on our review of the briefs and record, we conclude at conference that this case is appropriate for summary disposition. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21 (2021-22).<sup>1</sup> We affirm.

This case started in November 2022 with a petition filed by Gremminger. The circuit court dismissed the case in February 2023. Gremminger moved to reopen the case in December 2023. The court denied the motion in January 2024, and Gremminger appeals.

Gremminger’s brief contains complaints about the circuit court proceedings in this case. However, the brief fails to develop coherent arguments that apply relevant legal authority to the facts of record. This court need not consider arguments that are unsupported by adequate legal citations or are otherwise undeveloped. See State v. Pettit, 171 Wis. 2d 627, 646-47, 492 N.W.2d 633 (Ct. App. 1992). While we make some allowances for the failings of parties who, as here, are not represented by counsel, “[w]e cannot serve as both advocate and judge,” id. at 647, and we will not scour the record to develop viable, fact-supported legal theories on the appellant’s behalf, State v. Jackson, 229 Wis. 2d 328, 337, 600 N.W.2d 39 (Ct. App. 1999). Here, Gremminger has failed to develop arguments legally or to support them factually. Therefore, we affirm the circuit court on that basis.

IT IS ORDERED that the order appealed is summarily affirmed under WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this summary disposition order will not be published.
