

advised him of his right to file a response. No response has been filed.² Having reviewed the no-merit report, all of Davidson's communications with this court, and the record, we conclude that there is no arguable merit to any issue that could be raised on appeal, and we summarily affirm the judgment of conviction. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

Davidson was charged with one count of second-degree sexual assault of a child under 16 years of age and child enticement, both as a persistent repeater. See WIS. STAT. §§ 948.02(2), 948.07(1), 939.62(2m)(b)2. Pursuant to a plea deal, Davidson pled guilty to the sexual assault count. Under the terms of the plea deal, the State amended the information to remove the repeater enhancer from both counts, and agreed to dismiss all remaining charges in this case and another case, Waupaca County Circuit Court Case No. 2022CF349. The circuit court imposed a sentence consisting of 15 years of initial confinement and ten years of extended supervision.

The no-merit report addresses whether Davidson's plea was entered knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently. The plea colloquy sufficiently complied with the requirements of State v. Brown, 2006 WI 100, ¶35, 293 Wis. 2d 594, 716 N.W.2d 906, and WIS. STAT. § 971.08 relating to the nature of the charge, the rights Davidson was waiving, and other matters. The record shows no other ground to withdraw the plea. There is no arguable merit to this issue.

The no-merit report also addresses Davidson's sentence. As explained in the no-merit report, the sentence is within the legal maximum. As to discretionary issues, the standards for ² In a letter dated May 25, 2025, Davidson informed this court that he had attempted to submit a response by facsimile. We issued an order on June 4, 2025, informing Davidson that no response to the no-merit report had been received, either by facsimile or other means. We extended the deadline for Davidson to file a response until July 15, 2025, but he did not do so, nor did he file any extension motion.

the circuit court and this court are well established and need not be repeated here. See State v. Gallion, 2004 WI 42, ¶¶17-51, 270 Wis. 2d 535, 678 N.W.2d 197. In this case, the circuit court considered appropriate factors, did not consider improper factors, and reached a reasonable result. There is no arguable merit to this issue.

Our review of the record discloses no other potential issues for appeal.

IT IS ORDERED that the judgment of conviction is summarily affirmed. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Attorney Ellen Krahn is relieved of further representation of Davidson in this matter. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32(3).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this summary disposition order will not be published.
