You are hereby notified that the Court has entered the following opinion and order:

2025AP2244-CRNM State of Wisconsin v. Donnell D. Miles (L.C. #2015CF1570)

Before Neubauer, P.J., Grogan, and Lazar, JJ.

Summary disposition orders may not be cited in any court of this state as precedent or authority, except for the limited purposes specified in WIS. STAT. RULE 809.23(3).

Donnell D. Miles appeals from a judgment sentencing him after revocation of his probation for multiple crimes. His appellate counsel filed a no-merit report pursuant to WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32 (2023-24)¹ and Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967). Miles received a copy of the report, was advised of his right to file a response, and has elected not to do so. Upon consideration of the report and an independent review of the record, we conclude there are no issues with arguable merit for appeal. We summarily affirm the judgment. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

Miles was convicted following no contest pleas to substantial battery and felony bail jumping, both as a repeater. The charges stemmed from an incident in which he repeatedly punched a person in the face while out on bond in a felony matter.

The circuit court withheld sentence and placed Miles on probation. His probation was later revoked due to multiple rules violations,² and he appeared before the court for sentencing after revocation. There, the court imposed an aggregate sentence of two years of initial confinement and two years of extended supervision. This no-merit appeal follows.

The no-merit report addresses whether the circuit court erroneously exercised its discretion in sentencing Miles after revocation of his probation. This court is satisfied that the no-merit report correctly analyzes the issue it raises as without merit, and we will not discuss it further.

Our review of the record discloses no other potential issues for appeal.³ Accordingly, this court accepts the no-merit report, affirms the judgment of the circuit court, and discharges appellate counsel of the obligation to represent Miles further in this appeal.

² Miles allegedly consumed alcohol and cocaine, failed to comply with law enforcement officers, and possessed a firearm, among other things.

³ Any challenge to the underlying convictions is outside the scope of this appeal. See State ex rel. Marth v. Smith, 224 Wis. 2d 578, 582 n. 5, 592 N.W.2d 307 (Ct. App. 1999). In addition, “review of probation revocation is by way of certiorari review to the court of conviction.” Id. at 583.

Upon the foregoing reasons,

IT IS ORDERED that the judgment of the circuit court is summarily affirmed. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Attorney Olivia Garman is relieved of further representation of Donnell D. Miles in this appeal. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32(3).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this summary disposition order will not be published.
