You are hereby notified that the Court has entered the following opinion and order:

2020AP391-CRNM State of Wisconsin v. Isaac T. Jackson (L.C. #2017CF459)

Before Gundrum, P.J., Neubauer and Reilly, JJ.

Summary disposition orders may not be cited in any court of this state as precedent or authority, except for the limited purposes specified in WIS. STAT. RULE 809.23(3).

Isaac T. Jackson appeals from a judgment convicting him of armed robbery, first-degree reckless endangerment of safety, as a repeater, and possession of a firearm by a felon. His appellate counsel filed a no-merit report pursuant to WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32 (2019-20)¹ and Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967). Jackson received a copy of the report, was advised of his right to file a response, and has elected not to do so. Upon consideration of the report and an independent review of the record, we conclude that the judgment may be summarily affirmed because there are no arguably meritorious issues for appeal. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

Jackson was convicted following entry of no contest pleas to armed robbery with use of a dangerous weapon, first-degree reckless endangerment of safety with use of a dangerous weapon, as a repeater, and possession of a firearm by a felon. He was accused of robbing a Little Caesars Pizza restaurant with another individual. The circuit court sentenced Jackson to fifteen years of initial confinement and ten years of extended supervision on the armed robbery count, fifteen years of initial confinement and five years of extended supervision on the reckless endangerment count, and five years of initial confinement and five years of extended supervision for felon in possession of a firearm. This no-merit appeal follows.

The no-merit report addresses potential issues of (1) whether Jackson's plea was validly entered; (2) whether any pretrial issues were preserved despite the entry of the pleas; and (3) whether the circuit court provided a reasonable basis for the sentences imposed. This court is satisfied that the no-merit report correctly analyzes the issues it raises as without merit, and this court will not discuss them further.

Our review of the record discloses no other potential issues for appeal. Accordingly, this court accepts the no-merit report, affirms the judgment of conviction, and discharges appellate counsel of the obligation to represent Jackson further in this appeal.

Upon the foregoing reasons,

IT IS ORDERED that the judgment of the circuit court is summarily affirmed. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Attorney Gregory Bates is relieved of further representation of Isaac T. Jackson in this appeal. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32(3).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this summary disposition order will not be published.
