You are hereby notified that the Court has entered the following opinion and order:

2024AP589-CRNM	State of Wisconsin v. Martin Louis Gonzalez (L.C. #2023CF124)

Summary disposition orders may not be cited in any court of this state as precedent or authority, except for the limited purposes specified in WIS. STAT. RULE 809.23(3).

Attorney Jill Marie Skwor, as appointed counsel for Martin Louis Gonzalez, filed a no-merit report pursuant to WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32 and Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967). Counsel provided Gonzalez with a copy of the report, and Gonzalez sent several letters in response. After an independent review of the records and counsel's report, this court concludes that there is no arguable merit to any issue that could be raised on appeal. Therefore, we summarily affirm the judgments. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

Gonzalez pled no contest to one count of violating a temporary restraining order and one misdemeanor count of bail jumping. The circuit court initially withheld sentence and placed Gonzalez on probation for two years.

The no-merit report addresses whether Gonzalez's pleas were entered knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently. The plea colloquy sufficiently complied with the requirements of State v. Brown, 2006 WI 100, ¶35, 293 Wis. 2d 594, 716 N.W.2d 906, and WIS. STAT. § 971.08 relating to the nature of the charge, the rights Gonzalez was waiving, and other matters. The records show no other ground to withdraw the pleas. There is no arguable merit to this issue.

The no-merit report addresses the sentencing decision. As explained in the no-merit report, the probation terms were within the legal maximum. As to discretionary issues, the standards for the circuit court and this court are well-established and need not be repeated here. See State v. Gallion, 2004 WI 42, ¶¶17-51, 270 Wis.2d 535, 678 N.W.2d 197. In this case, the court considered appropriate factors, did not consider improper factors, and reached a reasonable result. There is no arguable merit to this issue.

Gonzalez's probation was revoked on one of the cases, and the sentencing after that revocation is also before this court in this appeal. The sentencing court imposed nine months in jail, consecutive to any other sentence. Again, there is no arguable merit to this issue because the sentence is within the legal maximum, and the court considered appropriate factors, did not consider improper factors, and reached a reasonable result.

The letters submitted by Gonzalez are difficult to understand, but do not appear to relate to any issue that is before this court in these appeals.

This court's review of the records discloses no other potential issues for appeal.

Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that the judgments of the circuit court are summarily affirmed. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Attorney Jill Marie Skwor is relieved of further representation of Martin Louis Gonzalez in this matter. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32(3).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this summary disposition order will not be published.
