COURT OF APPEALS FACSIMILE RULES

Facsimile Number: (608) 267-0640

1. Pursuant to WIS. STAT. RULE 809.80, "filing" is with the Clerk's Office, Madison, WI. Filing by facsimile is permitted only as set forth in RULE 809.80(3) and Wis. STAT. 801.16.
2. Any transmission must include a cover sheet which states the case number, name and telephone number of the party transmitting the document, and the total number of pages being transmitted.
3. All copies required by WIS. STAT. RULE 809.81(2) shall be transmitted by facsimile and you should NOT also send the document or copies by mail. The original document filed by facsimile shall not exceed ten pages, or fifteen pages if an appeal or other proceeding is one of the types of cases specified in WIS. STAT. § 752.31. Briefs, petitions under WIS. STAT. RULES 809.50 and 809.51, and indigency applications cannot be filed by fax.
4. Any document transmitted by facsimile must comply with WIS. STAT. RULE 809.81 (e.g., size, style, spacing, etc.).
5. A document should be transmitted so that the Clerk's office staff is not required to rearrange pages to assemble the document.
6. The party transmitting the facsimile document is solely responsible for ensuring its timely and complete receipt and assumes any risks inherent in such transmission. The Clerk's office is not responsible for errors or failures in transmission that result in missing or illegible documents or for periods when the Clerk's office facsimile machine is busy or not in operation for any reason.
7. Documents completing transmission after 5:00 p.m. will be considered "filed" the next business day. WIS. STAT. RULE § 809.80(3)(a).

This local rule is approved pursuant to WIS. STAT. § 801.16(2)(a), this 2nd day of July, 2012, by Richard S. Brown, Chief Judge, Court of Appeals, as amended by this 7th day of October, 2016, by Lisa S. Neubauer, Chief Judge, Court of Appeals.
