MANDATORY CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

Reporting Requirements

Chapter 31 of the Supreme Court Rules mandates that all active attorneys attend a minimum of thirty (30) hours of approved continuing legal education (CLE) every two years. The Supreme Court Rules also mandate that a minimum of three of the thirty hours must be Ethics and Professional Responsibility (EPR) credits. They also provide that attorneys who did not engage in the practice of law during the reporting period are exempt from the attendance requirement but must comply with the reporting requirement. Additionally, on January 11, 2008, the Supreme Court issued an Order adopting a "pure comity" rule which became effective for the CLE reporting period ending December 31, 2008. Under the "comity" rule (SCR 31.04 (3), "A lawyer whose practice is principally in another jurisdiction that has mandatory continuing legal education requirements and who is current in meeting those requirements is exempt from the attendance requirement of SCR 31.02, but shall comply with the reporting requirement of SCR 31.03."

The BBE and the Consolidated Courts Automation Program office (CCAP) collaborated on the development of an electronic CLE reporting program which was first offered in 2008. The goal of the e-filing program is to make the reporting process easier for attorneys and the BBE staff. Approximately eighty-eight (88%) percent of the attorneys required to report in the 2014-2015 cycle used the electronic program.

Pursuant to the Wisconsin Supreme Court Rules, attorneys who are not in compliance with the mandatory CLE attendance and reporting requirements are suspended from the practice of law following a notice of non-compliance. Of the 5,199 lawyers who have been suspended for non-compliance with the mandatory continuing legal education requirements since the inception of the program in 1977, 2,637 remained suspended at the end of calendar year 2016.

CLE Course Denials

CLE course approval was denied in one hundred forty-nine (149) cases. The main reason for CLE course denials was for courses pertaining to marketing, advertising, "rain-making," profitability, and similar types of courses which were deemed not to be related specifically to improving attorneys' professional competence as attorneys as required by the Supreme Court Rules, but could apply to any business entity. EPR approval was denied for approximately one hundred ninety-eight (198) courses. The principal reason for denial of approval was the failure to have a continuous hour of EPR as required by SCR 31.07 (5) or not meeting the objective of increasing an attendee's professional competence as an attorney as required by SCR 31.07 (2) (a) or (b).
