

Answer Key

Who's Who in Court?

1. These people come to court to tell the truth and talk about what they have seen or heard.

Witnesses

2. This person types everything that is said in court into a machine.

Court reporter

3. This person organizes all the papers and keeps track of the judge's decisions.

Clerk

4. This person translates what is said in court.

Interpreter

5. This person's job is to make decisions and make sure that everyone follows the rules in court.

Judge

6. These people give advice and talk in court for the people who have disagreements.

Lawyers or attorneys

7. This person keeps order in the courtroom and usually wears a uniform.

Bailiff

8. These people listen to both sides of a disagreement in court and then decide who wins.

Jurors

What's Wrong With This Picture?

Looking at the picture from left to right, top to bottom: fiery torch on the wall, not the Wisconsin seal, lawyer wearing shorts in court, judge holding balloon, no papers or files on the judge's desk, no flagpole and not Wisconsin flag, witness chewing gum and blowing a bubble, court reporter playing video game, chess set on desk, clerk asleep, lawyer with feet on table and no shoes, food on lawyer's table, picket fence in courtroom. People in audience are eating, reading a newspaper, talking during the proceeding, knitting, and not wearing shoes. And is that a bear in the courtroom?!