Comments:	The following is retained from the prior form summary: The original version was limited to a Judgment of Acquittal. In a recent Court of Appeals decision, State v. Theriault, 187 Wis. 2d 125, 522 N. W. 2d 254 (1994), the court in a footnote made a suggestion that the clerk of court should complete judgments of dismissal or acquittal on all counts, in addition to judgments of conviction: "The Records Management Committee of the Wisconsin Court Systems should prepare uniform judgment of dismissal forms for use of the Clerk of Courts. Immediately upon resolution of a pending criminal case, the clerk of courts' office should prepare all the necessary judgments to document the disposition of each count." CCAP requires that the clerk enter a disposition for each count in a complaint/information. Therefore, CCAP can easily generate a judgment that lists all counts for which there is a dismissal or acquittal. Because of this, RMC decided to incorporate dismissals and acquittals into one document.
