ACTS PROHIBITED BY STATUTE

Neither party to this divorce or legal separation action can participate in any of the following activities while this action is pending:

1. Harassing, intimidating, physically abusing or imposing any restraint on the personal liberty of the other party or a minor child of either of the parties.
2. Encumbering, concealing, damaging, destroying, transferring, or in any other way disposing of property owned by either or both of the parties, without the consent of the other party or an order of the court, except in the usual course of business, in order to secure necessities or in order to pay reasonable costs and expenses of the action, including attorney fees.

Joint Petitioner A: _____
Joint Petitioner B: _____

3. Relocating and establishing a residence with a minor child of the parties more than 100 miles from the residence of the other party without the consent of the other party or an order of the court.
4. Removing a minor child of the parties from the state of Wisconsin for more than 90 consecutive days without the consent of the other party or an order of the court.
5. Concealing a minor child of the parties from the other party without the consent of the other party or an order of the court.

A VIOLATION OF THE ABOVE PROHIBITIONS MAY RESULT IN PUNISHMENT FOR CONTEMPT, WHICH MAY INCLUDE MONETARY PENALTIES, IMPRISONMENT, AND OTHER SANCTIONS AS PROVIDED FOR IN §785.04, WIS. STATS.

A violation of paragraphs 3, 4, or 5 above is not a contempt of court if the court finds that the action was taken to protect a party or a minor child of the parties from physical abuse by the other party and that there was no reasonable opportunity under the circumstances for the party to obtain an order authorizing the action.

These PROHIBITIONS apply until the action is dismissed, a final judgment in the action is entered, or the court orders otherwise.

Wisconsin Department of Children and Families Child Support Standard

Authority and Purpose

Wis. Stats. § 49.22(9) requires the Department to adopt and publish a standard, based upon a designated percentage of the gross income and assets of either or both parents, to be used by courts in determining child support obligations. Chapter DCF 150 of the Wisconsin Administrative Code establishes Wisconsin's child support standard. It is based upon the principle that the child's standard of living should, to the degree possible, be the same as if the child's parents were living together.

Chapter DCF 150 defines the income upon which the support obligation is based, and sets the percentages of income for computing the support obligation based upon a number of children. It also explains optional procedures for adjusting the obligation when the parents share placement, when the parent has an obligation to support another family, or when the payer has particularly high or low income.

Applicability

The designated percentage applies to any temporary and final order for child support, including child support stipulations agreed to by both parents and modifications of existing child support orders.

Definition of Income and Assets

Chapter DCF 150 defines gross income as income from any source, whether or not it is reported or taxed under federal law. The income can be in the form of money, property, or services. Public assistance or child support received from previous marriages or business expenses, which the court determines are reasonably necessary for the production of income or operation of a business are subtracted, and wages paid to dependent household member are added to determine "gross income available for child support."

The court may also determine that income may be "imputed" (assumed at a given level) based on earning capacity and/or assets, and that imputed income is added to the gross income for the calculation of the support obligation.

THE STANDARD CHILD SUPPORT CALCULATION

The percentages are:

- 17% for one child
- 25% for two children
- 29% for three children
- 31% for four children
- 34% for five or more children

Wisconsin Statutes require temporary and final support orders to be expressed as fixed sum in most situations.

Statutory Factors Courts May Consider In Determining Child Support Awards for Paternity, Divorce, or Legal Separation

§767.511, Child Support.

(1m) Upon request by a party, the court may modify the amount of child support payments determined under §767.511(1j), if, after considering the following factors, the court finds by the greater weight of the credible evidence that use of the percentage standard is unfair to the child or to any of the parties:

- (a) The financial resources of the child.
- (b) The financial resources of both parents.
- (bj) Maintenance received by either party.
- (bp) The needs of each party in order to support himself or herself at a level equal to or greater than that established under 42 USC 9902 (2).
- (bz) The needs of any person, other than the child, whom either party is legally obligated to support.
- (c) If the parties were married, the standard of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not ended in annulment, divorce or legal separation.
- (d) The desirability that the custodian remain in the home as a full-time parent.
- (e) The cost of day care if the custodian works outside the home, or the value of custodial services performed by the custodian if the custodian remains in the home.
- (ej) The award of substantial periods of physical placement to both parents.
- (em) Extraordinary travel expenses incurred in exercising the right to periods of physical placement under §767.41.
- (f) The physical, mental and emotional health needs of the child, including any costs for health Insurance as provided for under sub. (4m).
- (g) The child's educational needs.
- (h) The tax consequences to each party.
- (hm) The best interests of the child.
- (hs) The earning capacity of each parent, based on each parent's education, training and work experience and the availability of work in or near the parent's community.
- (i) Any other factors which the court in each case determines are relevant.
