- 5. The placement of the child/juvenile continues no longer continues to be necessary, safe and appropriate.
 - Placement in a planned permanent living arrangement is the best permanency goal for the child/juvenile at this time. It continues not to be in the best interests of the child/juvenile to be returned home or placed for adoption, with a guardian, or with a fit and willing relative. The reasons for these findings are:

6. Adequate efforts have have not been made to involve the appropriate service providers in meeting the special needs of the child/juvenile and his or her parent(s).

- 7. Sufficient progress has has not been made in eliminating the causes for the child's/juvenile's out-of-home placement and toward returning the child/juvenile safely to his or her home or toward obtaining a permanent placement for the child/juvenile.

The permanency plan is

- not appropriate because it fails to sufficiently address the circumstances which prevent the child/juvenile from
 - being returned safely to the home;
 - being placed safely in the home of a fit and willing relative;
 - having a petition for involuntary termination of parental rights filed on behalf of the child/juvenile;
 - being placed for adoption;
 - being placed with a guardian;
 - being placed in some other planned permanent living arrangement that includes an appropriate, enduring relationship with an adult (if 16 years or older).

- not made by the department or agency responsible for providing services as follows:

11. Reasonable efforts to place the child/juvenile in a placement that enables the sibling group to remain together were

- made.
- not required because the child/juvenile does not have siblings in out-of-home care.
- not required because it would be contrary to the safety or well-being of the child/juvenile or any of the siblings.

12. Active efforts were were not made to provide remedial services and rehabilitation programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family. See attached Statement of Active Efforts (IW-1609)

13. Placement was made in accordance with the order of preference set forth in the Indian Child Welfare Act.
OR

There is good cause to depart from the order of placement preference in the Indian Child Welfare Act.

14. The child/juvenile has a permanency goal of placement in a planned permanent living arrangement, and the agency has taken the following steps, including consulting with the child/juvenile, to ascertain whether the child/juvenile has regular, ongoing opportunities to engage in age or developmentally appropriate activities and to ensure that the caregiver is applying the reasonable and prudent parent standard to decisions concerning participation in those activities:

15. The child/juvenile is subject to an order that terminates at age 21 or is under a voluntary transition to independent living agreement.

A. The transition to independent living plan is is not appropriate.

B. Sufficient progress has has not been made by the child/juvenile toward the transition to successful adulthood.

C. The transition to independent living plan has or has not been complied with as follows:
