GARNISHMENT. EXECUTIONS AND EXEMPTIONS

An unpaid money judgment against you can result in the judgment creditor satisfying the judgment by taking or selling your personal property, including income, and your real estate.

Garnishment is a separate legal proceeding used to take money in possession of another which is owed you, typically income or deposits in financial institutions, in an amount sufficient to satisfy the judgment. A separate garnishment proceeding must be commenced by a judgment creditor choosing this remedy.

Execution is a writ (court order) issued by a court directing the sheriff to seize or attach your personal property or real estate so that it may be sold to satisfy the judgment. A writ of execution can be issued upon the perfecting and docketing of the original judgment without starting a separate legal proceeding.

Exemptions are assets protected by statute from garnishment and execution. These assets are determined in part by your marital status, the number of your dependents, whether the transaction leading to the judgment was a consumer credit transaction and whether the judgment creditor had a mortgage or a security interest. Other qualifications and limitations are set forth in §815.18(3) through (13), Wisconsin Statutes.

Because your personal circumstances will determine if an asset is exempt from execution, this form only informs you about the types of assets and amount of income which MAY be exempt and the statutes you can refer to for specific information.

Your exempt assets and income with statutory limitations may include the following:

- Salary up to 10% for purchase of savings bonds [Wis. Stats. §20.921(1)(e)].
