¹ From July 27, 2005 to July 1, 2009, there were two kinds of OAR: OAR 1st was noncriminal and subsequent offenses were criminal. From July 1, 2009 to February 29, 2012, there were primarily two kinds of OAR based on the reason for the underlying revocation: OAR was noncriminal if the revocation was not alcohol or drug related and criminal otherwise. See prior tables for violations occurring during these periods.

² Any revocation shall be for 6 months unless court states reasons for less on the record. 343.30(1g)(d).

³ If person has 3 or more prior OAR/OWS convictions within 5 years, court may revoke license for 6 months. 343.30(1g)(b).

⁴ “If the person knows at the time of the violation that his or her operating privilege has been suspended” or revoked. 343.44(2)(ag)2. & 3.; 343.44(2)(ar)3. & 4. “No person whose operating privilege has been duly revoked ... may knowingly operate a motor vehicle upon any highway...” 343.33(1)(b).

⁵ Guidelines must treat commercial drivers at least as stringently as other drivers. 343.44(2)(d).

⁶ For OWS without great bodily harm or death, “a person’s knowledge that his or her operating privilege is suspended is not an element of the offense ...” 343.44(1)(a).
