WISCONSIN SUPREME COURT MONTHLY STATISTICAL REPORT

OCTOBER 2025

This statistical report provides an overview of case filings and dispositions of the Wisconsin Supreme Court for the month of October and for the term that began on September 1, 2025.

The Supreme Court issued one opinion in October. Information about issued opinions, including the Court's disposition and the names of the authoring justices, can be found in the attached table.

PETITIONS FOR REVIEW

A petition for review is a request made to the Supreme Court to review the decision made by the Court of Appeals. It is important to note that the Supreme Court has discretionary jurisdiction, which means that it only grants review in selected cases. During October, 72 new petitions for review were filed. In addition, the Supreme Court disposed of 27 petitions for review during the month, one of which was granted. At present, the Supreme Court has 336 petitions for review that are still pending.

	October 2025	Term to Date
Petitions for Review filed	72	131
Civil Cases	33	63
Criminal Cases	39	68
Petitions for Review dispositions	27	24
Civil Cases (petitions granted)	9 (0)	20 (1)
Criminal Cases (petitions granted)	18 (1)	31 (1)

PETITIONS FOR BYPASS

A petition for bypass is a request for the Supreme Court to assume jurisdiction over an appeal other proceeding pending in the Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court can grant such a petition if the case meets one or more criteria for review, or if there is a compelling need to expedite the appellate process. When a bypass is granted the Supreme Court will decide the matter directly, regardless of any potential decision by the Court of Appeals.

In October, the Supreme Court received no petitions for bypass and disposed of no petitions. The Supreme Court currently has four petitions for bypass pending.

	October 2025	Term to Date
Petitions for Bypass filed	0	1
Civil Cases	0	1
Criminal Cases	0	0
Petitions for Bypass dispositions	0	0
Civil Cases (petitions granted)	0 (0)	0 (0)
Criminal Cases (petitions granted)	0 (0)	0 (0)

Requests for Certification

A request for certification arises when the Court of Appeals calls upon the Supreme Court to hear a case before the Court of Appeals has had the opportunity to do so. This type of request is typically made when the Court of Appeals believes that the case is of such significance that it is essential for the Supreme Court to consider it at the earliest opportunity.

The criteria for evaluating such a request are the same as those used when assessing a petition to bypass. The Supreme Court considers various factors, including the importance of the issues at stake, the likelihood that the case will return to the Supreme Court if it is not heard, and whether the case would benefit from the Supreme Court's guidance.

If the Supreme Court decides to grant the request for certification, it means that it will consider the case first, before the Court of Appeals has had the opportunity to hear it. If the Supreme Court declines the request, the case will proceed to the Court of Appeals in the usual way. During October, the Supreme Court received no requests for certification and disposed of none. The Supreme Court currently has one request for certification pending.

	October 2025	Term to Date
Requests for Certification filed	0	0
Civil Cases	0	0

Requests for Certification dispositions	0	0

Regulatory Matters, Supervisory Writs, and Original Actions

During the month, two matters within the regulatory jurisdiction of the Court (bar admission, lawyer discipline, and judicial discipline) were filed and one case was reopened. The Supreme Court received six petitions for supervisory writ, which ask the Supreme Court to order a lower court to take a certain action in a case. The Supreme Court currently has 16 regulatory matters and 40 petitions for supervisory writ pending.

An original action is a petition asking the Supreme Court to take jurisdiction over a particular matter. When an opinion is issued in these cases, the disposition is included in “Opinions Issued by the Court” above; otherwise, the case is disposed of by order and is included in the totals below.
