WISCONSIN SUPREME COURT MONTHLY STATISTICAL REPORT

MAY 2009

This statistical report presents information about the case filings and dispositions of the Wisconsin Supreme Court during the month of May 2009 and to date for the term that began on September 1, 2008.

Opinions Issued by the Court

The Supreme Court issued nine opinions in May. Information about these opinions, including the Court's dispositions and the names of the authoring justices, can be found on the attached table.

Petitions for Review

A total of 72 petitions for review were filed during the month. A petition for review asks the Supreme Court to review the decision of the Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court's jurisdiction is discretionary, meaning that review is granted in selected cases only. In May, the Supreme Court disposed of 82 petitions for review, of which 3 petitions were granted. The Supreme Court currently has 208 petitions for review pending.

Petitions for Bypass

The Supreme Court received 2 petitions for bypass and disposed of no petitions for bypass in May. In a petition for bypass, a party requests that the Supreme Court take jurisdiction of an appeal or other proceeding pending in the Court of Appeals. A matter appropriate for bypass is usually one which meets one or more of the criteria for review by the Supreme Court and one the Supreme Court concludes it will ultimately choose to consider regardless of how the Court of Appeals might decide the issues. A petition for bypass may also be granted where there is a clear need to hasten the ultimate appellate decision. The Supreme Court currently has 2 petitions for bypass pending.

In a request for certification, the Court of Appeals asks the Supreme Court to exercise its appellate jurisdiction before the Court of Appeals hears the matter. A request for certification is decided on the basis of the same criteria as a petition to bypass. The Supreme Court currently has one request for certification pending.

The Supreme Court also received 4 petitions for supervisory writ, which ask the Supreme Court to order the Court of Appeals or a circuit court to take a certain action in a case.
