SUPREME COURT

Supreme Court of Wisconsin

No. 2025XX447-CR

STATE V. POLZIN

L.C.#2022CF174

October 21, 2025

The Court, by its Clerk and Commissioners, has entered the following order:

On October 19, 2025, Michael Polzin submitted a pro se motion to this court requesting a motion hearing and a new attorney in his underlying criminal case. He filed related supplements on October 21, 2025. The court of appeals recently denied a similar request directed to that court. See State v. Polzin, 2024XX1650-CR and 2025XX447-CR, unpublished slip op. (Wis. Ct. App., Oct. 15, 2025). Polzin's motion before this court suffers from the same defect as his motion before the court of appeals—namely, there is no current proceeding or case concerning the underlying criminal matter pending before this court. Therefore, the motion must be dismissed. To the extent that Polzin intended to institute a writ proceeding, the court notes that Polzin's filing was faxed to this court and does not even minimally comply with the requirements of WIS. STAT. § (Rule) 809.51. Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that Michael Polzin's October 19, 2025 motion for a hearing and appointment of counsel is dismissed.
