Supreme Court of Wisconsin

No. 2024AP248

CARLBORG V. MOUNT VIEW CARE CENTER

L.C. #2022CV401

April 21, 2026

The Court, by its Clerk and Commissioners, has entered the following order:

The court received a petition for review submitted by Ludmyla Carlborg, pro se, acting as personal representative of the Estate of Kenneth Carlborg. The petition seeks review of a July 1, 2025 summary disposition order of the court of appeals dismissing her appeal for lack of jurisdiction because, as a non-lawyer, Ludmyla lacked the authority to sign the notice of appeal on behalf of her late husband's estate. The court of appeals subsequently entered an order dated July 10, 2025, denying Ludmyla's motion for reconsideration.

For the same reasons articulated by the court of appeals in the above-referenced orders, and for the same reasons set forth in this court's order dismissing Ludmyla's petition for review in a previous appeal in this matter, Ludmyla's petition for review must be dismissed. See Carlborg v. Mount View Care Center, No. 2023AP1186, S. Ct. Order (Oct. 27, 2023) ("Ludmyla is not an attorney licensed to practice law in the courts of this state. Therefore, she may not represent the Estate in her own personal capacity or in a capacity as personal representative because that would constitute the unauthorized practice of law.") (collecting authorities).¹

¹ Ludmyla cites "Janssen v. State Farm, 2003 WI App 147, fn. 2" for the proposition that there is a "carefully preserved exception" when a personal representative is the sole beneficiary of an estate, but no case with that citation exists standing for that proposition.

CARLBORG V. MOUNT VIEW CARE CENTER
No. 2024AP248

Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that the petition for review is dismissed.

Samuel A. Christensen
Clerk of Supreme Court
