You are hereby notified that the Court, by its Clerk and Commissioners, has entered the following order:

No. 2019XX1653-W Jansen v. Circuit Court of Fond du Lac County L.C.#2019CF579

On September 26, 2019 and October 21, 2019, the court received several letters and documents pertaining to a criminal case pending in Fond du Lac County, State v. Jansen, Case No. 2019CF579. The documents were filed by Kristi Jansen. Ms. Jansen explains that she is married to Joshua L. Jansen. Essentially, she seeks a writ of habeas corpus and the dismissal of all pending charges against Mr. Jansen.

The court will take no action on these filings. This case is pending in the circuit court. Mr. Jansen is represented by an attorney. Ms. Jansen is not a party to this case, is not a victim, and does not appear to be authorized to proceed in this matter. We note that several of the documents she filed on October 21, 2019 appear duplicative of documents she filed in the circuit court. These documents appear to disclose the name of an alleged victim who is a minor, so these documents will be filed and maintained under seal in this court. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the no action will be taken on the multiple documents that Kristi Jansen filed in this court on September 26, 2019 and October 21, 2019; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the copies of the "Affidavit of Truth," "Request for Withdrawal from Prosecution," "Protected person's motion to rescind domestic violence no-contact order," and "Affidavit for non-prosecution" will be filed and maintained under seal in this court.

Sheila T. Reiff
Clerk of Supreme Court
