NO. 2026XX1291-D OFFICE OF LAWYER REGULATION V. ROBERT LEE TAYLOR

October 23, 2026

The Court has entered the following order:

By order of August 19, 2026, this court summarily suspended Attorney Robert Lee Taylor's license to practice law in Wisconsin pursuant to SCR 22.20 based upon his conviction of three counts of second-degree sexual assault, one count of misdemeanor battery, and one count of strangulation and suffocation. See State v. Taylor, Milwaukee County Case No. 2022CF4881. Pursuant to SCR 22.20(6), the Office of Lawyer Regulation (OLR) had two months—until October 19, 2026—to either file a disciplinary complaint against Attorney Taylor or show cause why his summary suspension should continue.

On October 19, 2026, the OLR filed a letter with the court requesting a two-month extension of the summary suspension in light of Attorney Taylor's current health status, which the OLR explains in some detail. The OLR accompanied this letter with a motion to seal the letter to protect Attorney Taylor's medical information.

IT IS ORDERED that the OLR's motion to seal its October 19, 2026 letter to the court is granted so as to protect the medical information contained therein.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the OLR's October 19, 2026 letter to the court is hereby construed as a motion to extend the summary suspension of Attorney Robert Lee Taylor's law license for a period of two months from the date of this order. That motion is granted for cause shown.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, within two months of the date of this order, the OLR shall file a disciplinary complaint against Attorney Taylor or shall show cause why Attorney Taylor's summary suspension should continue.
