COURT ORIGINAL

State of Wisconsin,
Plaintiff-Respondent,
v.
Chaze Desouva Biami,
Defendant-Appellant.

Date: March 5, 2019

District: 1
Appeal No. 2019AP000158 CRNM
Circuit Court Case No. 2016CF002689

Dear Chaze Desouva Biami:

I have received from your appointed counsel a report that further appellate proceedings in your case would be frivolous and without any arguable merit within the meaning of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967). A copy of that report was served upon you. In accordance with Rule 809.32(1) you have 30 days from service of that report to file any response you may wish the court to consider.

If you file a response, we will forward a copy of that response to your attorney. Your attorney may file a supplemental no merit report within 30 days after receipt of your response.

After receipt of the circuit court record and all responses, we will submit them to the court for consideration. You will be promptly notified of any action taken in this matter.

Sheila T. Reiff
Clerk of Court of Appeals
