You are hereby notified that the Court, by its Clerk and Commissioners, has entered the following order:

---

Nos. 2019AP1832-CR     State v. Yakich L.C. #s 2018CF169 & 2018CF301
2019AP1833-CR

By order of June 16, 2021, this court granted a petition for review filed on behalf of defendant-appellant-petitioner, Christopher W. Yakich.

On July 7, 2021, Mr. Yakich's counsel filed a motion asking this court to include this case in the Supreme Court's e-filing pilot project. See generally In re Interim Court Rule Governing Electronic Filing in the Supreme Court, 2021 WI 62 (June 15, 2021)(stating, in attached Revised Interim Rule Beginning July 1, 2021, that "[a]ctions and proceedings filed in the supreme court ... may be included in the pilot project at the invitation of the Clerk or by order of the supreme court").

2019AP1833-CR

IT IS ORDERED that the motion is denied, and therefore documents in this proceeding must be filed on paper and served by traditional methods. (Parties are still required to file electronic copies of briefs in addition to paper copies. See Wis. Stat. § (Rule) 809.19(12).) As the pilot project is just commencing in the Supreme Court, participation in the Supreme Court's e-filing pilot project is currently limited. It will expand as the electronic filing system is further tested and refined.
