Taylor County Case No. 17-CF-20

Supreme
CLERK OF COURT APPEALS
OF WISCONSIN

Dear Mr. Torres:

We received notification from the Court that Attorney George Limbeck was allowed to withdraw from your case. The Public Defender's Office is only required to appoint two attorneys to an individual's criminal case. Attorney Limbeck was your second attorney. You had previously fired Attorney Paul Goetz. I am unsure why Attorney Limbeck withdrew from your case, but it is clear from the Court notes that the Court wants our office to appoint you one more attorney. As the Court informed you, this can take quite some time. This is because you have already had two attorneys and the seriousness of your case.

Because the Court has ordered our office to appoint you another attorney, we will do so this time. This will be the last attorney that we appoint to your case unless the Court would order us to do so again in the future. Once a new attorney has been appointed, we will mail you a letter letting you know who that attorney is. If your address or contact information changes at any time, please make sure you let our office know.

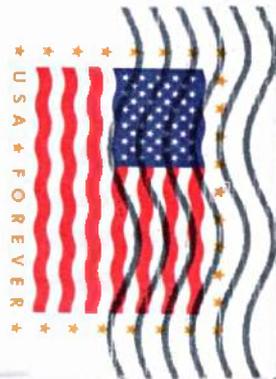

Sincerely,

Electronically signed by Attorney Jessica L Fehrenbach
