Respondent.

SECOND SCHEDULING ORDER

A telephonic scheduling conference was held in the above-entitled matter pursuant to SCR 22.15 on February 8, 2023, at approximately 9:00 a.m. The complainant appeared and was represented by Attorney Thomas Laitsch. The respondent appeared in person and without counsel. After discussion with the parties and considering the matters related to a bench trial of the disciplinary complaint,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

1. A one-day in-person hearing in this matter shall be held in the 1st floor hearing room, Green County courthouse, Monroe, Wisconsin, on April 20th, 2023, commencing at 9:00 a.m.
2. The telephonic pretrial hearing shall be held on Wednesday, April 5th at 9:00 a.m. This hearing shall be held on the record and counsel for the complainant shall arrange for the services of a court reporter.
3. Discovery shall close on March 15th on which date the parties shall exchange witness and exhibit lists and provide copies to the referee.

4. Prior to the pretrial hearing, the parties shall confer in a good faith effort to stipulate to as many facts and legal issues as reasonably possible without compromising either party's ability to fully litigate contested issues of fact or law in the case. The written stipulation shall be reduced to writing and presented to the referee prior to the pretrial hearing.

5. The parties have represented to the referee that all pretrial discovery matters have been resolved and that no further discovery-related or other pretrial motions are anticipated.

6. The parties have represented to the referee that pleadings are in final form. No amendments or additional pleadings except possible but unlikely final pretrial motions referenced above shall be permitted except upon notice and motion and for good cause.

7. This scheduling order, including the dates and deadlines set forth herein, shall not be amended except for good cause as determined by the referee.

8. The parties are reminded of the need to file all original pleadings, motions, memoranda, etc., and correspondence with the clerk of the Supreme Court, with copies to the referee and the opposing party. Copies of all such filings are to be provided to the opposing party and the referee by electronic means followed by paper copies via the USPS or commercial delivery service.

Dated this 21st day of February, 2023.

Edward E. Leineweber, Referee
