You are hereby notified that the Court, by its Clerk and Commissioners, has entered the following order:

---

No. 2023AP2039-W      Dodge v. Circuit Court of Barron County, L.C.#2023TR668

On October 30, 2023, petitioner, Anna Olivia Dodge, pro se, submitted via facsimile, a supervisory writ petition asking this court to exercise its supervisory jurisdiction in Barron County Case Number 2023TR668. The petition asks this court to "throw[] out" and "vacate[]" the Barron County traffic case since, among other things, the circuit court did not change the October 30, 2023 trial date as requested by Ms. Dodge.

The court took no action on the writ petition submitted via facsimile on October 30, 2023, because a supervisory writ petition requires a $195 filing fee, and thus cannot be filed via facsimile even if the filer is entitled to a fee waiver. See Wis. Stat. § 801.16(2). On November 2, 2023, the court received the physical copy of the October 30, 2023 writ petition.

IT IS ORDERED that the supervisory writ petition is dismissed. This court will not exercise its supervisory jurisdiction where there is an adequate alternative remedy. See generally Wis. Stat. § 809.71 and accompanying Judicial Council Committee's Note, 1981. In accordance with this rule, a supervisory writ petition filed in this court must "show why it was impractical to seek the writ in the court of appeals or, if a petition had been filed in the court of appeals, the disposition made and reasons given by the court of appeals." § 809.71.
