You are hereby notified that the Court, by its Clerk and Commissioners, has entered the following order:

No. 2021AP503

State v. Wright, L.C.# 2006CF1408

On February 22, 2024, this court received a letter, filed by defendant-appellant Cory Wright, in which Mr. Wright asks that the above captioned case, which was dismissed by court order dated January 31, 2023, be reinstated, on the ground that Mr. Wright never received the court's December 7, 2022 notice that a $195 filing fee, or waiver of the filing fee, was required for the filing of a petition for review. See Wis. Stat. § (Rule) 809.25(2). Mr. Wright states that if he had received that notice, he would have paid the filing fee. The court notes that the December 7, 2022 notice was sent to Mr. Wright at Columbia Correctional Center, but that, according to the Wisconsin Department of Corrections' website, at that time Mr. Wright was an inmate at Stanley Correctional Institution. However, the January 31, 2023 order dismissing the case for failure to pay the filing fee or seek waiver of the filing fee was sent to Mr. Wright at Stanley Correctional Institution. Mr. Wright filed the letter requesting relief a year after the January 31, 2023 order dismissing the case was issued. As the matter has been dismissed and remitted for over a year, Mr. Wright's request is denied.

IT IS ORDERED that the motion is denied.

Clerk of Supreme Court
