OFFICE OF LAWYER REGULATION,

CLERK OF SUPREME COURT OF WISCONSIN

Complainant,

Case No. 2023 AP 1664-D

vs.

BRYANT H. KLOS,

Respondent.

SECOND SCHEDULING ORDER

A telephonic scheduling conference was held in the above-entitled matter pursuant to SCR 22.15 on June 25, 2024, at approximately 9:00 a.m. The complainant appeared and was represented by Attorney Jonathan Hendrix. The respondent appeared in person and was represented by Attorney Stacie H. Rosenzweig. After discussion with the parties,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

1. An in-person hearing in this matter is set for February 17 and 18, 2025. The parties anticipate that the hearing will take no more than two days and be heard in the State Bar Center, Madison, Wisconsin. The hearing shall commence at 9:00 a.m.
2. A final in-person pre-trial hearing shall be held at the State Bar Center on Tuesday, February 3, 2025 at 1:30 p.m. This hearing shall be held on the record.
3. Counsel for the complainant shall arrange for a court reporter for both the pre-trial hearing and the disciplinary hearing. Counsel for the parties have stipulated to the State Bar Center location and will be responsible between them to arrange for the rooms with the State Bar personnel.

4. The next telephonic scheduling conference shall be held on Wednesday, July 31, 2024, at 9:00 a.m. The parties shall contact the referee by telephone with counsel for the complainant to initiate the call. The scheduling conference shall not be on the record unless a party so requests at least five days prior to the conference, or unless the referee chooses to have it on the record sua sponte.

5. Discovery shall close on December 31, 2024.

6. Prior to November 1, 2024, the parties shall confer in a good faith effort to stipulate to as many facts and legal issues as reasonably possible without compromising either party's ability to fully litigate contested issues of fact or law in the case. The stipulation shall be reduced to writing, signed and presented to the referee by that aforesaid date.

7. The deadline for a preliminary disclosure of witnesses to be called and exhibits expected to be offered in a party's case-in-chief shall be November 1, 2024. This, along with the stipulation referenced above, is necessary so that an accurate assessment can be made of the likely length of the disciplinary hearing and confirm the date and place of the hearing.

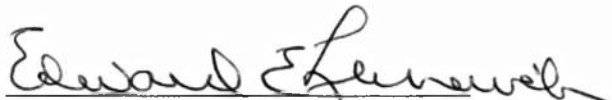

8. The parties, through counsel, have informed the referee that no pre-trial motions are anticipated; hence no dates or deadlines for such motions are set.

9. The parties have represented to the referee that the pleadings are in final form. No amendments or additional pleadings, including pre-trial motions, shall be permitted except upon notice and motion and for good cause.

10. This scheduling order, including the dates and deadlines set forth herein, shall not be amended except for good cause as determined by the referee. Failure to comply with the provisions of this order may result in sanctions.

11. The parties are reminded of the need to file all original pleadings, motions, and memoranda, etc., and correspondence with the clerk of the Supreme Court, with copies to the referee and the opposing party. Copies of all such filings are to be provided to the opposing party and the referee by electronic means followed by paper copies via the USPS or commercial delivery service.

Dated this 25th day of July, 2024.
