You are hereby notified that the Court, by its Clerk and Commissioners, has entered the following order:

---

No. 2024XX1629-CR      State v. Williams, L.C.#2017CF350

Marvin E. Williams, pro se, has filed a motion to appoint counsel and a motion to receive transcripts that he claims are overdue.

On February 13, 2025, the court of appeals issued an order denying Williams' motion to reinstate his direct appeal rights and to extend the time under WIS. STAT. § 809.30 to file a postconviction motion or notice of appeal in relation to a judgment of conviction entered on March 4, 2022. The court of appeals explained that "Williams has been repeatedly informed that he does not qualify for public representation, and that it is his own responsibility to make arrangements to pay for any transcripts he wishes to have produced."

Having considered Williams' filings, the order of the court of appeals, and noting that there is no proceeding pending before this court,

IT IS ORDERED that the motions are denied.
