Mrs Clark,

CLERK OF COURT OF APPEALS
OF WISCONSIN

I believe your decision is in error and would appreciate you asking one of the judges for their opinion on this matter.

The may 1 order was in reference to the appeal and petition for review and various motions trying to get them to re-review those decisions.

The material that the extraordinary writ refers to is the 994.06 action before the circuit court now. Its a entirely different action then the 5-1 order refers to.

I explained that I sent you the originals and that, that puts me in a pendicament as now I have no proofs of what the institution or circuit court clerk have done if I now chose to pursue contrary in the circuit court, I also explained I dont have money to make copies or to send you the money for copies these circumstances are the reasons for asking for a extraordinary writ I cant do what Im required to do even if you send me a copy ~~with~~ the institution wont copy it for me to send to the circuit court nor will the clerk of courts copy it, are these - not extraordinary circumstances?

Now you have the proof required to prove the deprivation of the right to appeal and whats - been going on. Please see if they would consider it a different action it has nothing to do with the court of appeals decision or see if they allow you to return that stuff or copy it its all I have.

C. Denis McMANA, Fallon
J. McMONIGAL

Thanks Mr. Man

OF WISCONSIN

Mr. Moran,

I apologize for bothering you but from previous experience in my case when ever the clerk of counts actions or other counts actions have been questionable your name always shows up on those documents, AND I have no place to turn AND have NO way to contact the count involved.

Hence my situation, in April 2002 this friend told me that the institution keeps records of every thing they send out related to their legal assistants program which meant if I sent something out in April 2000 they would have a record of it.

So I wrote the institution and asked for copies of my — disbursement slips of all the documents I sent out in ~~at~~ April 2000 — that did not show up on the county clerks docket list, I complained on appeal but the court said I did not prove my claim, now I can.

So the institution called the waushara county clerk and they were told oh he must be talking about the court of appeals docket list and that, that list would not have what we filed. convinced the institution had refused to copy the disbursement.

So I ended up sending the institution the entire docket list and pointed out the April filings, which there were none and the institution looked and found 9 documents that they sent the county clerk so decided to copy them anyways and sent all the other — disbursement of other agencies who copies were sent to of these documents.

So I filed a motion for discovery of those documents so they they could be added onto the clerks docket list so I could now make the claims I could not on appeal because there was nothing to refer to and could not reiterate it all in a 50 page brief.

Two month later Mr Fallon responds on 9/10 I believe - the count of appeals now has that letter and I don't have a copy, anyways. I wrote the count myself on 9/13 and sent Fallon a copy and wrote C. Mr Fallon on the letter, that original and the certified slip and - disbursement for Fallons is also in the count of appeals.

And the clerk wrote back citing a different Judges name then the letter was addressed to and claimed ex parte communication - so I sent it right back with a letter to the clerk stating it was for Judge memorandum and asked her to call the institution to verify, they would not make copies and to call Fallon to verify, I sent him a copy.

She sends it back again, in the mean time I wrote the count of appeals for intervention because of her bogus delay tactic saying it was for some one else but the institution refuses to copy again both refusals are in that document in the count of appeals now, so she sends it back now stating I had not told her whether Fallon got a copy, and she would not copy it without having money first. The institution takes all my - money but occasionally gives me 3 to 5⁰⁰ but if I don't spend it they take that the next week so there's never money when I need it at the times I need, I can't not respond when I receive something if I wait 10 days thinking I'm going to get 5⁰⁰ then don't well you see the problem.

So then I send every thing back to get copies again with this last letter from the clerk, it was refused again. So I inquired around - and was told by the institution staff that they could do nothing about it and the supreme court was who settled problems in the dept of corrections so on a chance I sent all my originals to them asking for intervention through a extraordinary writ, and this is when their clerk consents my stuff and puts in the closed file, I did explain my situation and she still just takes my stuff and says oh well its mine now, (Sarcasm)

I guess it was in 2002, It still refers to trying to get them to reconsider.

The clerk of the supreme court used the may 1st 2002, order.
I don't know what this is in may 2001 they made an order for the clerk to not except any more material but that referred to my attempts to get them to readdress the court of appeals and their decision on the petition for review, the only actions I've had in 2002 is from countense 99-CF-61 from green lake I'm assuming she rezoned in the 2002.

Regardless I explained the institution the county clerk and I had no money for copies and I could not follow the traditional rules as no one would copy the material for me. So now these documents are being held hostage because they know I can't send money for copies, even if they give me 3 to 5⁰⁰ that wouldn't cover it at 40¢ per copy so to me this is — tantamount to stealing my evidence and it's ultimately delaying and — obstructing Justice their order said I could pursue this in the circuit court but how can I do that when they have everything?

I don't know if you can do anything but I noticed your — address is the same as theirs maybe you can walk over and review that stuff so you can see I have no way to get it back, I should have — permission to copy soon I wrote the amicus on 10-15-02 and I'm not sure if they'll copy this since you not the circuit court but I'll try. Hence the letters I've sent out so every ones in the loop.

Thanks for your time
Mike Morris

You are hereby notified that the Court has entered the following order:

No. 00-1530-CR State v. Morris L.C.#98CF27

Petitioner, Michael A. Morris, has filed motions for an "extraordinary writ" and for intervention, all pertaining to L.C. #98CF27 which was the subject of prior orders from this court, the latest one on May 1, 2002 which stated that further attempted filings were to be placed into the closed file without response.

IT IS ORDERED that the motions are dismissed. Supervisory relief over the institution, if appropriate, can be sought from the circuit court.
