You are hereby notified that the Court, by its Clerk and Commissioners, has entered the following order:

No. 2017AP844-CRNM State v. Vaughn L.C.#2012CF171

On October 15, 2018, defendant-appellant, Iryin Keth Vaughn, pro se, filed a letter indicating that he wishes to seek review of the court of appeals' decision of November 15, 2017, and alleging that, at the time of the decision, he was not advised of his right to seek further review of the court of appeals' decision in this court. On October 19, 2018, this court issued an order directing the attorney who represented defendant-appellant in the court of appeals, Attorney Paul G. Bonneson, to file a written memorandum stating whether he communicated with the defendant-appellant regarding the right to file a petition for review in this court. On October 25, 2018, Attorney Bonneson filed a letter stating that he did advise defendant-appellant of his right to file a petition for review and attached a copy of a letter to defendant-appellant, dated November 16, 2017, which enclosed a copy of the court of appeals' decision and explicitly advised defendant-appellant of his right to file a petition for review within 30 days of the court of appeals' decision. Therefore, this court, by order of dated October 26, 2018, took no action on defendant-appellant's October 15, 2018 letter.

No. 2017AP844-CRNM State v. Vaughn L.C.#2012CF171

On November 2 and 15, 2018, defendant-appellant filed additional letters with this court making a bald, unsupported and unsworn accusation that Attorney Bonneson is lying and that he did not receive Attorney Bonneson's November 16, 2017 letter. Defendant-appellant's letters fail to rebut Attorney Bonneson's letter. In addition, the court of appeals' decision indicates that a copy of it was also mailed directly to defendant-appellant at the same address to which Attorney Bonneson's letter was addressed. The court of appeals' decision advised defendant-appellant that Attorney Bonneson was relieved from further representation of defendant-appellant and cited Wis. Stat. § (Rule) 809.32(3), which in turn informed defendant-appellant that he had a right to file a petition for review in this court under Wis. Stat. § 809.62. Defendant-appellant does not allege that he failed to receive his copy of the court of appeals' decision. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that this court will take no action on the letters filed on November 2 and November 9, 2018.

Sheila T. Reiff
Clerk of Supreme Court
