The following table describes pending cases the Supreme Court has accepted on petition for review, bypass, certification and original jurisdiction.

The cases included for the first time (that is, the most recently accepted cases) are marked with an * next to the case number. After the Supreme Court decides a case, the date of oral argument or date of submission on briefs is replaced with the date of the Supreme Court decision and abbreviated mandate. That mandate will generally be listed in the table for two months and then the case will be removed from the table.

The information in the table, from left to right, is as follows:

- the case number;
- an abbreviated caption of the case (case name);
- a statement of the issue(s);
- the date the Supreme Court accepted the case;
- the method by which the case came to the Supreme Court: REVW = Petition for review, CERT = Certification, CERQ = Certified Question, BYPA = Petition to bypass, ORIG = Original Action, WRIT = Petition for supervisory writ, REMD = Remanded from the U.S. Supreme Court;
- the date of oral argument or submission on briefs; or the date of the Supreme Court decision and an abbreviated mandate;
- the Court of Appeals district from which the case came, if applicable; the county;
- the date of the Court of Appeals decision, if applicable;
- whether the Court of Appeals decision is published or unpublished, and, if it is published, the citations to the public domain citation and the official reports for the Court of Appeals decision.

The statement of the issue is cursory and does not purport to be an all-inclusive, precise statement of the issues in the case. Readers interested in a case should determine the precise nature of the issues from the record and briefs filed with the Supreme Court.

The following table covers cases accepted and decisions issued through August 22, 2017. Please direct any comments regarding this table to the Clerk of Supreme Court, P.O. Box 1688, Madison, WI 53701-1688, telephone (608)266-1880.

Should Wis. Stat. § 343.44(2)(b) be authoritatively construed to be directory rather than mandatory, so as to provide that a circuit court may, but is not required to, consider the enumerated factors in the exercise of its sentencing discretion, just as it may, but is not required to, consider other proper sentencing factors?	01/09/2017 REVW Affirmed 07/06/2017 2017 WI 74	2 Waukesha	09/07/2016 Pub. 2016 WI App 61 371 Wis. 2d 519 885 N.W.2d 381

2015AP1523	Vincent Milewski v. Town of Dover Whether government entry into a citizen's home under Wis. Stat. § 70.47(7)(aa) and § 74.37(4)(a) (which together require property owners to permit interior inspections of homes for tax assessment purposes or forfeit their right to challenge their assessment in any manner) constitute a search for Fourth Amendment purposes. Whether warrantless searches under Wis. Stat. § 70.47(7)(aa) and § 74.37(4)(a) are reasonable as a matter of law. Whether Wis. Stat. § 70.47(7)(aa) and § 74.37(4)(a) violate the Due Process Clause by depriving a citizen of any right to appeal a tax assessment if the citizen denies consent to an assessor to conduct an interior inspection of the citizen's home.	10/11/2016 REVV Reversed and remanded 07/07/2017 2017 WI 79	2 Racine	Unpub.

2015AP1610-CR	State v. Ginger M. Breitzman Do our constitutional free speech protections prohibit the State from prosecuting one family member for calling another family member rude names inside the privacy of the family home? When reviewing a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel, the court of appeals must defer to the postconviction court's fact-findings but reviews de novo the legal questions of deficient performance and prejudice. 2015AP2224	Wisconsin Association of State Prosecutors v. Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission The Legislature delegated to the Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission (Commission) authority to promulgate reasonable rules of governing annual elections for bargaining representatives. Here, the Commission promulgated rules requiring that interested associations, including current representatives, give notice by petition that they wish to appear on the next annual election’s ballot. The issue is whether that rule is unreasonable in light of the annual election statutes. An issue raised in the court of appeals by the plaintiffs concerns the timing of decertification. This issue only arises if the Commission has authority to decertify for failure to timely file a petition.	02/13/2017 REVW Oral Arg 09/15/2017	1 Milwaukee	11/16/2016 Pub. 2016 WI App 85 372 Wis. 2d 347 888 N.W.2d 237
