The following table describes pending cases the Supreme Court has accepted on petition for review, bypass, certification and original jurisdiction.

The cases included for the first time (that is, the most recently accepted cases) are marked with an * next to the case number. After the Supreme Court decides a case, the date of oral argument or date of submission on briefs is replaced with the date of the Supreme Court decision and abbreviated mandate. That mandate will generally be listed in the table for two months and then the case will be removed from the table.

The information in the table, from left to right, is as follows:

- the case number;
- an abbreviated caption of the case (case name);
- a statement of the issue(s);
- the date the Supreme Court accepted the case;
- the method by which the case came to the Supreme Court: REVW = Petition for review, CERT = Certification, CERQ = Certified Question, BYPA = Petition to bypass, ORIG = Original Action, WRIT = Petition for supervisory writ, REMD = Remanded from the U.S. Supreme Court;
- the date of oral argument or submission on briefs; or the date of the Supreme Court decision and an abbreviated mandate;
- the Court of Appeals district from which the case came, if applicable; the county;
- the date of the Court of Appeals decision, if applicable;
- whether the Court of Appeals decision is published or unpublished, and, if it is published, the citations to the public domain citation and the official reports for the Court of Appeals decision.

The statement of the issue is cursory and does not purport to be an all-inclusive, precise statement of the issues in the case. Readers interested in a case should determine the precise nature of the issues from the record and briefs filed with the Supreme Court.

The following table covers cases accepted and decisions issued through April 23, 2019. Please direct any comments regarding this table to the Clerk of Supreme Court, P.O. Box 1688, Madison, WI 53701-1688, telephone (608)266-1880.

2016AP2503 (consolidated with 2017AP13)	Enbridge Energy Company, Inc. v. Dane County Wisconsin law (Wis. Stat. § 59.69(2)(bs), § 59.70(25)) expressly preempts counties from imposing certain insurance requirements on pipeline operators as conditions in a conditional use permit [(CUP)]. Can a county, while conceding that state law prevents it from enforcing a particular insurance requirement, nonetheless include that requirement as a condition in a CUP granted to a pipeline operator? Wisconsin law (Wis. Stat. § 59.69(11)) permits property owners, under certain circumstances, to enforce county "zoning ordinances." Under this law, (1) can a property owner bring a citizen suit to enforce a particular condition in a CUP issued by a county, and (2) if so, can a property owner bring a citizen suit to enforce that condition when the county concedes that the condition is unenforceable? If the holder of an approved CUP successfully challenges a particular condition in that permit—but not the permit in its entirety—as unlawful, is striking the unlawful condition a proper remedy? Does this Court's remedy jurisprudence under Adams v. 2017AP684-AC	Town of Lincoln v. City of Whitehall Is a town from which property is being annexed barred and precluded, under Wis. Stat. § 66.0217(11)©, from asserting that the annexation petition is not, in fact, a petition for direct annexation by unanimous approval when the annexation petition lacks all of the landowners' signatures required, by statute, for the petition to constitute a petition for direct annexation by unanimous approval? Was the annexed property "contiguous" to the city when the annexation resulted in a configuration of irregular boundaries and exclusions? Was the city a "controlling influence" in the annexation boundaries when it acted, in concert with a business owner who was not an annexation petitioner, to establish boundaries in order to facilitate a sand mining operation, including by dictating what the boundaries would be so the city could provide electrical service; requiring revisions to boundaries so that the annexation would not create an "island"; and attempting to negotiate a Development Agreement, prior to approval of the annexation, that included obligations on the part of the city regarding zoning and annexation? Can a town challenge a direct annexation by unanimous consent under the last two elements of the judicially created Rule of Reason? (See Town of Brookfield v. City of Brookfield , 274 Wis. 638, 80 N.W.2d 800 (1957)).	09/04/2018 REVW Reversed and remanded 04/17/2019 2019 WI 37	3 Trempealeau	05/30/2018 Pub. 2018 WI App 33 382 Wis. 2d 112 912 N.W.2d 403

Is expert testimony always required? Why or why not? If so, what must be included in the expert's testimony? Or alternatively, must a court determine the scope of jeopardy based upon whether a reasonable person familiar with the totality of the facts and circumstances would have to construe the initial charging documents, at the time jeopardy attached in the first case, to cover the offense that is charged in the charging document of the subsequent prosecution? To determine the scope of jeopardy, does the court look at the charging documents in light of the facts and circumstances known when jeopardy attached, which in the case of a jury trial is when the jury is sworn, or may a court narrow the scope of jeopardy based upon testimony that was later adduced at trial?
