APPENDIX

Rules of the Board of Bar Examiners

DEFINITIONS

CLE 1.01

The year of an attorney's admission to the State Bar of Wisconsin shall be the year carried on the computer records of the State Bar unless the lawyer notifies the Board in writing prior to the end of his or her first reporting period that the State Bar data is incorrect and attaches supporting documentation.

CLE 1.02

Except for repeated on-demand programs, the minimum number of persons attending a course shall be two attendees and one moderator. Fewer than that number, and the course shall be deemed to be self-study and shall not be approved for CLE credit.

REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

CLE 3.01

The classification of State Bar of Wisconsin membership on the February 1 immediately following the end of the lawyer's reporting period will govern whether a report will be required. The Board will grant lawyers who change to inactive status after February 1 according to State Bar records a deferment of the 30 hours then due on receipt of a written request that is accompanied by the late fee then due and the written statement of the State Bar that the lawyer has in fact already converted his or her membership to inactive status. A request will be considered timely if received at the Board office by the close of business on the date that the lawyer's suspension is to go into effect pursuant to SCR 31.10(1); that is, the filing date established by that rule.

CLE 3.015

(1) Lawyers who have been in inactive status or have been voluntarily resigned from the State Bar and who have not complied with the last reporting period, must complete 30 hours of CLE (including 3 ethics hours) prior to resuming active status. Only approved CLE activities that were completed during or after the last reporting period may be used to satisfy the 30 hour requirement.

(2) Lawyers who have been in inactive status or have been voluntarily resigned from the State Bar and who have not complied with the last two reporting periods, must complete 60 hours of CLE (including 3 ethics hours) prior to resuming active status. Only approved CLE activities that were completed during or after the last two reporting periods may be used to satisfy the 60 hour requirement.

(3) Except as found in SCR 31.05 (5) (d) and CLE 7.005, lawyers may satisfy the requirements of the above subsections if they demonstrate to the board that, during the entire time they were in inactive status, (i) they were admitted to the practice of law in another jurisdiction that had mandatory continuing legal education requirements, and (ii) they were current in meeting those requirements.

(4) Lawyers who resume active status must also satisfy the requirements of SCR 31.02 for the reporting period in which they are reactivated.

(5) CLE requirements under this section shall not be greater than they would have been if the lawyer had not been in inactive status or had not been voluntarily resigned from the State Bar.

CLE 3.02

(1) No late fee will be assessed against lawyers who complete their reporting and attendance requirements by the February 1 following the end of their reporting period.

(2) Lawyers who have been served with the notice of noncompliance set out in SCR 31.10(1) may avoid the automatic suspension therein described if, within 60 days after service, they (a) complete their reporting and attendance requirements and (b) pay the late fee.

CLE 3.03

Where CLE Form 1 appears in SCR Chapter 31, it shall also include written amendments of a CLE Form 1 previously filed for the same reporting period. Such amendments are subject to the same deadlines as the CLE Form 1.

EXEMPTIONS

CLE 4.01

Although a lawyer is exempt from attendance or reporting in the calendar year during which his or her admission falls, the lawyer may report on the CLE Form 1 due at the end of the first full two-year reporting period any approved hours up to a maximum of 15 that were attended between the date of admission and the end of the calendar year in which his or her admission to the practice of law occurred. Hours carried in under this provision may not be used to satisfy the legal ethics and professional responsibility requirement in accordance with SCR 31.05(2)(c).

APPROVED HOURS

CLE 5.01

Sponsors must provide a method for lawyers who have taken on-line on-demand programs to submit questions, and must provide answers supplied by instructors who are qualified by practical and academic experience with fifteen business days, at no additional cost.

- (a) A copy of the on-line on-demand program on DVD;
- (b) A statement of the manner in which the sponsor intends to comply with CLE 5.01.

(2) Sponsors with general program approval under SCR 31.08(3) need not comply with the requirements of sub. (1).

CLE 5.03

No legal ethics and professional responsibility credits shall be awarded for grading the essay portion of the Wisconsin bar exam.
