

MISCELLANEOUS ALLOWABLE EXPENSES

Laundry: If the employee is away for more than three days, reasonable amounts will be allowed for laundry, cleaning, and pressing service. Only one charge per calendar week is reimbursable. Employees are expected to pack sufficient clothing for the duration of their expected travel. Receipts are required for reimbursement.

Gratuities and Portage: Gratuities to hotel employees are reimbursable up to $2 on dates of arrival and departure, and up to $2 per night of stay at a hotel/motel.

Portage costs at airports or bus terminals will be reimbursed. The claim should not exceed $1 per piece of luggage.

Registration Fees: Registration fees over $25 must be supported by an original paid receipt, copy of the check, or traveler's customer copy of the credit card receipt for the registration.

EXPENSES FOR REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

Individuals traveling on official Courts business may require a reasonable accommodation, as required by the Federal Americans with Disabilities Act and/or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Reasonable accommodations could take various forms such as payment of portage costs or allowing a personal attendant to accompany the individual while in travel status.

For more detail regarding travel policies and procedures, including eligibility for meals, please refer to the Reporting Travel & Expenses Travel Guide and Travel Policy.

GENERAL POLICY

The information contained in this brochure is a summarization of the Court's travel guidelines. The complete list of guidelines is available on CourtNet.

The rates contained in this brochure apply to all employees, including justices and judges.

Employees in travel status are expected to use good judgment when incurring travel costs. Only expenses incurred while conducting official Court business will be reimbursed. Reimbursement claims must represent actual, reasonable and necessary expenses.

The employee's supervisor or department designee must personally approve travel claims.

MEAL CLAIMS: Meal claims must be actual, reasonable and necessary and represent the actual amount spent. For a claim to be reimbursed in excess of the maximum amount, an itemized receipt or charge card credit slip (tear tabs are not acceptable) must be provided and there must be documentation that the cost was incurred outside of the traveler's control. To be allowed reimbursement for breakfast, the employee must leave home on or before 6:00 a.m.; lunch, departure must be on or before 10:30 a. m. and return after 2:30 p.m.; dinner, return must be on or after 7:00 p.m to home or headquarters city, whichever is earlier.

These time frames are for employees working standard hours of 7:45 a. m. to 4:30 p.m. These time frames may be modified for employees working varied work schedules.

On any particular day that an employee is entitled to reimbursement for two or more consecutive meals, the maximum amount for one or more meals may be exceeded and the employee may claim the actual amount spent for each meal as long as the total amount claimed for the eligible meals is not greater than the combined maximum reimbursement rate for those meals. If meal maximums are not reached on one day, the excess amount does not accrue and cannot be applied to meals on another day or other costs incurred. An employee is eligible for a higher meal reimbursement rate when traveling out of state.

Maximum reimbursement rates for meals (in-state and out) are included in the section entitled "Maximum Reimbursement Rates."

IN-STATE LODGING:

When contracts exist with the state for lodging properties, Courts employees should use this contract, whenever possible. It's the responsibility of the Courts employee to stay within the state lodging spend limit guidelines. Courts employees that share a room may divide the rate equally, but not exceed the state permitted rate for a single room. Employees should carry an ID that identifies them as a Courts employee. If the lodging property requires proof of tax-exempt status, please contact the Office of Management Services. Employees should use either a purchasing card or travel card, whenever possible when paying for lodging rooms.

Courts employees are exempt from paying sales tax in Wisconsin on lodging and should avoid such by furnishing written documentation stating they are traveling on official state business. In the event that tax is charged, the employee will request credit back for the charge by the lodging property.

Maximum lodging rates for in-state lodging are included in the section entitled "Maximum Reimbursement Rates".

HIGH-COST OUT-OF-STATE LODGING: The Department of Administration Division of Personnel Management issues a bulletin listing High-Cost Out-Of- State Cities and the maximum lodging rates allowed. Contact the Office of Management Services in advance of travel for rates in a specific city.

AUTOMOBILE TRANSPORTATION

Use of Fleet Vehicles: When using fleet vehicles, passengers must be limited to Courts employees or travelers engaged in official courts business. Fleet vehicles shall not be used for personal business. In the event a fleet vehicle is not available; the fleet office will issue a non-availability slip.

Use of Personal Vehicles: An employee may use a personal vehicle. Employees headquartered in Dane are required to obtain a non-availability slip stating there was no fleet vehicle available to be reimbursed at the higher rate. If an employee chooses to use a personal vehicle and does not obtain a non-availability slip when required, the mileage is reimbursed at a rate determined by the Uniform Travel Guidelines. Non-availability slips are not required when employees do not have access to fleet vehicles in their headquarters city.

Mileage reimbursement rates are included in the section entitled "Maximum Reimbursement Rates."

Rental Vehicles: Rental vehicles should only be used in situations where it is the most cost efficient means of transportation or the efficient conduct of Courts business precludes the use of other means of transportation.

AIR TRAVEL: Courts employees are limited to the lowest appropriate airfare when traveling on official Court business. Lowest appropriate airfare is defined as fare which provides for not more than a two hour window from the traveler's preferred departure or arrival time and may require one plane transfer. Different airlines may define this airfare as coach, economy, or basic economy. Travelers are permitted to be reimbursed for any luggage fees. The purchase of an airfare at the rate other than the lowest appropriate airfare must be approved by the department head or designee in the form of a written explanation of the reasonableness of the expense. Airfare and travel agent fees should be paid by the use of the Courts purchasing card or travel card.

Benefits from any airline promotion program, such as frequent flier points or credit vouchers, belong to the Court and should be turned over to the Office of Management Services.

TAXI AND LIMOUSINE: Reasonable charges for taxi or limousine service are reimbursable. However, limousine shuttle service (usually less expensive or free) should be utilized in place of a taxi whenever possible. Unless properly justified, claims for taxi service to and from the airport should be limited to the rate for the shuttle service. Receipts are required for one-way fares exceeding $25.

TRAVEL BY TRAIN, BUS OR PRIVATE PLANE: Travel by train shall be limited to coach, if available, unless overnight where accommodations should be limited to roomette. Receipts are required for reimbursement.

Employees traveling within the headquarters city and between cities convenient to be reached by bus, shall travel by bus whenever feasible as determined by the appointing authority or designee. Receipts are required for travel between cities.

Under s. 20.916(5)(a), Stats., use of a private plane may be authorized by the appointing authority. Reimbursement will be made at the mileage reimbursement rate.
